Dear Friend,

Greetings from the Bowling Green Human Rights Commission, I am pleased to announce our plans for the 21st annual Women's History Month program!

This is a very exciting milestone for us because it marks 21 years of successfully honoring the many valuable contributions of our community of women! Marian Wright Edelman wrote with passion and gratitude of "the lanterns in my life who illuminated dark and uncertain paths, calmed debilitating doubts and fears with encouraging words, wise lessons, gentle touches, firm nudges and faithful actions along the journey of life..."

Our theme for the 2012 Women of Achievement Awards is fittingly titled "Women - Sustainers of Truth & Wisdom". My hope is that you will take some time this year to reflect on the women in your life who have inspired, nurtured and illuminated your path.

We are currently accepting nominations for this year's awards, which will be presented on Friday, March 23rd at our Women of Achievement Awards Banquet. The cost of the banquet including dinner is $35 and will be held at the Carroll Knicely Conference Center at 6:00p.m.

Awards will be given in the following areas:

*Creative Arts i.e.: music, dance, etc.
Community Service*

*Entrepreneurship
Science & Health
Women's First
Youth Achievement
Lifetime Achievement*

*Business Education (Elementary,
Middle, High School & College)
