Title and summary of Ordinance No. BG2023 – 14 was read by the City Clerk. Motion was made by Parrigin and seconded by Bailey for the first and non-binding reading of said Ordinance. Meisel explained the rezoning was a unanimous recommendation from the City-County Planning Commission. Mayor Alcott briefly explained the process by which the Board would proceed, which would be based on the record of the City-County Planning Commissions' public hearing. He further said he would provide an opportunity for those in attendance to speak, but no new evidence may be presented. Hannah Morse, Keila Colorado and Rebecca Voiles residents of Kentucky Gardens Mobile Home Park located at 1798 River Street, each spoke in opposition of the rezoning. Ms. Morse explained the mobile homes were personally owned and residents were renting the property, and due to the age of the mobile homes there were no options for moving and relocating. She expressed concern for finding another option that would fit the needs of low income residents. Ms. Colorado explained she had children with disabilities and didn't know what to do, but would recommend denying the rezoning. Ms. Voiles also said she may not be able to remain in Bowling Green due to the rising costs for housing. City-County Planning Commission Executive Director Ben Peterson reviewed the proposed scope of the project, which would include up to a 375 multi-family units, commercial development, such as restaurants and retail, walking trails and pavilions. The Board of Commissioners addressed local housing, services, and workforce opportunities in the community. Once discussion concluded, the Mayor and Commissioners agreed to table the first reading of the rezoning until the developer, Mr. Eddie Hanks, and/or his attorney, Chris Davenport, could be present to answer questions and concerns regarding the residents at the mobile home park. Motion was made by Parrigin and seconded by Beasley-Brown to table Ordinance No. BG2023 – 14 until the next meeting. With no further discussion, a roll call vote was taken.
