WORK SESSION

Parks and Recreation Department Director Brent Belcher provided opening remarks regarding the Parks Master Plan prepared by MKSK Principal Andy Knight and Pros Consulting President Leon Younger. A briefing of the Master Plan was reviewed by Mr. Knight. The process and timelines were discussed, as well as the community engagement aspect, which included over 2,500 Bowling Green voices engaged from January – October. Mr. Knight and Mr. Younger confirmed 1,030 plus individuals were engaged at community events, over 150 were engaged at three (3) community meetings, 533 responses to an online survey, 25 stakeholders engaged at roundtables and 503 responses were received from a statistically valid survey. The Master Plan vision and recommendations were summarized, and the recommendation themes included: enhance connectivity, maintain and improve existing parks facilities, create awareness, expand the geographic reach, promote parks and recreation, foster natural spaces, invest in new facilities, enhance programming, strengthen and establish partnerships and improve operational preparedness. The Commission for Accreditation of Park and Recreation Agencies (CAPRA) was discussed and the plan recommended for the Bowling Green Parks and Recreation Department to become accredited. The implementation and next steps were reviewed, including short-term, mid-term and long-term timelines. Following some discussion, it was determined to continue conversation about the Parks Master Plan at the upcoming Board of Commissioners special work session/strategic goal planning on January 22nd, and tentatively approve the plan in February.
